

JORDANPASS
Ministry Of Tourism And Antiquities

Anna Alie Van Someren

NATIONALITY
Netherlands

Residency
Netherlands

Ticket Number 14300518
14/03/2016 Purchased Point of Sale

70
JOD

TICKET TYPE

Jordan Wanderer

Standard 1 time entry to all attractions and 1 day visit to Petra

Rules and Regulations

- The Jordan Pass is non-refundable and non-exchangeable.
- The Jordan Pass is non-transferable.
- No refund applies in the event of closure of participating locations for public holidays or unforeseen events, or free entrance days.
- No refund applies for un-used tickets.
- The Jordan Pass is valid for use within 12 months following date of purchase. Once activated it will expire within 2 weeks.
- Opening times of participating Locations fluctuate from time to time and users of information on this website are advised to check with the Location concerned prior to visiting in order to ascertain the opening times.
- Buying the Jordan pass after arrival to Jordan does not allow the pass holder to benefit from the entry visa discounts and tax exemptions.
- This pass is for personal use and is not transferable. Any misuse will subject the pass holder to legal liabilities.

The Jordan Pass is issued by the Ministry of Tourism and Antiquities of Jordan. All rights reserved.